

Revive Total Health & Wellness Clinic

Membership Terms

Membership Overview

The Revive Total Health & Wellness Clinic Membership Program provides ongoing medical weight management support through a telemedicine-based wellness model.

Membership is designed for patients seeking structured follow-up care, accountability, education, and treatment monitoring.

Membership Fee

$129 per month

Membership fees are billed automatically on a recurring monthly basis using the payment method on file.

Membership fees are non-refundable once charged.

Membership Benefits

Membership may include:

- One scheduled follow-up visit per month
- Weight management support and accountability
- Lifestyle and nutrition counseling
- Medication management when clinically appropriate
- Laboratory review
- Secure patient messaging for non-urgent concerns
- Ongoing care coordination

Services are provided through telemedicine and secure electronic communication platforms.

What Is Not Included

Membership fees do not include:

- Initial consultation fees
- Laboratory testing
- Prescription medications

- Compounded medications
- Supplements
- Specialty testing
- Emergency medical services

Patients are responsible for all laboratory and medication-related costs.

Follow-Up Care

Ongoing follow-up appointments are an important part of safe and effective treatment.

Patients may be required to complete laboratory testing and attend follow-up visits before medications can be prescribed, adjusted, or renewed.

Prescription Policy

All treatment recommendations and prescriptions are based on medical necessity and provider judgment.

Membership enrollment does not guarantee:

- Prescription approval
- Access to specific medications
- Continued treatment eligibility
- Specific treatment outcomes

Controlled substances are not prescribed through Revive Total Health & Wellness Clinic.

Cancellation

Membership may be canceled at any time by providing written notice before the next billing cycle.

Membership fees already charged are non-refundable.

Membership benefits remain active through the end of the current billing period following cancellation.

No Guarantee of Results

Individual results vary.

Revive Total Health & Wellness Clinic does not guarantee weight loss, symptom improvement, medication response, laboratory changes, or specific medical outcomes.

Successful treatment depends on many factors, including medical history, lifestyle habits, treatment adherence, and follow-up participation.
